

Congregation BJBE Sisterhood presents

Performer: Judi Schindler

Wednesday, January 14th at 7:30 p.m.

Home | Audience Comments | Booking Information | Watch a Preview

- You'll Learn
- ✓ Why women should avoid professional athletes and Justin Bieber.
  - ✓ How to translate the phrase: "I need to find myself."
  - ✓ The pros & cons of marrying a nerd.
  - ✓ Why straight women should consider same sex marriage.
  - ✓ The last vestige of chivalry every woman must demand.

The Ultimate Girl Talk:

This laugh-filled, 40-minute performance is perfect for spouse programs, women's luncheons, fundraisers, bridal showers. Call 312-890-9660 or email info@judischindler.com for more information.

A Manual on Husbands ...

"Even toasters come with manuals. And what could be easier than making toast?"

Gift Giving ...

"Vacuum cleaners, beer coolers and Thigh Masters: bad gifts."

Staying Married...

"In the Middle Ages, couples didn't divorce. Famine and disease put them out of their misery."

The Other Woman ...

"It's easier to admire a man, if you aren't married to him."

Judi Schindler -- actress, public relations consultant, speaker - draws on 46 years of marriage to reveal the secrets behind selecting a husband and maintaining him in good working order. "Husbands: An Owner's Manual" offers witty, candid advice for women who want to stay married for the rest of their lives.