

Dear Families,

BJBE's Early Childhood Program at the Chava Center has its own Facebook page. Designed to help to keep families informed of important school events, provide an inside look at the learning and experiences provided at school, and market our program to the broader North Shore Jewish community, "like" our page. Help to promote our program by forwarding it to your friends and family.

In order to post pictures of your child on our school page, written permission is required. No personal information about any child or any other family member will be used or shared. In signing this release, you agree to refrain from "tagging" or providing other individual identifying information about photos posted on the BJBE Early Childhood Program at the Chava Center's Facebook page.

Please initial the appropriate box to reflect with your wishes regarding the use of your child's picture on the BJBE's Early Childhood Program at the Chava Center Facebook page. All forms must be signed by a parent.

Thank you for your partnership!

L'Shalom,
Susie
