SUNDAY ADULT EDUCATION

These programs will take place at Weinberg Community for Senior Living, 1601 Lake Cook Road in Deerfield. It is the first building off Wilmot Road, just South of Lake Cook Road.

Saying “No” to Abusive Relationships, and “Yes” to Healthy Ones

Sundays, November 6, 13 & 20, 2016, 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Facilitators: Deborah Zions, SHALVA Education and Outreach Coordinator & Naomi Senser, SHALVA Board Member

Everyone deserves the right to healthy, happy and safe relationships whether at home, in our families, or at work. We will hear from expert panelists on how to identify when someone we love is being abused, who to turn to, and how to advocate for healthy relationships for our loved ones and ourselves.

Festivals of Lights: The Common Roots of Hanukkah & Christmas

Sundays, December 4* & 11, 2016, 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Instructor: Rabbi Brian Stoller

Is it just a coincidence that both Hanukkah and Christmas are celebrated in December and by lighting lights? The truth is that these two holidays have much more in common than you might think. Looking both at ancient Jewish sources and the New Testament, we will uncover the hidden stories and common roots of Hanukkah and Christmas.

The December 4th program is sponsored by BJB E's Endowment Committee. The Endowment Fund is our lifeline to BJB E's future. Through gifts and bequests from our members, The Endowment Fund is vital to maintaining our congregation's religious, educational, cultural, and philanthropic activities for years to come. Please join us for a presentation at the beginning of the program.*
