KEEPING FAITH: SISTERS OF STORY
Wednesday, March 6, 2019, 7:30pm-9:00pm
1201 Lake Cook Road - Deerfield, IL

"With the recent uptick of hateful and vitriolic language in this country since the 2016 election, Rohina Malik, a Muslim woman and storyteller, wanted to create a project to demonstrate peace and commonalities between us all. She approached Susan Stone who is a Jewish woman and storyteller and Kim Schultz, who identifies as a Christian woman and storyteller with an idea: what if we all told stories from our faiths with the goal of bringing people together and showing peace, curiosity and similarities amongst the faiths. Kim and Susan jumped at this opportunity and KEEPING FAITH: SISTERS OF STORY was born. We hope you agree that now more than ever, we need to come together and decide who we are going to be as a community and as a nation and how we are going to allow our story to be told."

"Each storyteller tells 3 stories inspired by their personal faith journey. We are often joined by a cultural musical storyteller, Lucia Thomas, on violin, oud, and guitar. We hope you will join us at a performance and share in our story."

Rohina Malik Hasany: A critically acclaimed playwright and solo performance artist. She is a resident playwright at Chicago Dramatists and an Artistic associate at the 16th Street Theatre. Her plays, The Mecca Tales & Yasmina's Necklace were both nominated for a Jeff Award for Best New Work, and her one woman play, Unveiled has been produced at various theaters. <http://rohinamalik.weebly.com>

Kim Schultz: An author, actor and refugee advocate who has performed on many local and national stages. She has written two solo shows and recently published Three Days In Damascus (Palwell Press, 2016), a memoir about falling in love with an Iraqi refugee. Kim loves stories and how they shape our memories and lives. www.kimschultz.net

Susan Stone: A storyteller and teaching artist, has traveled all over the country, as well as to Poland, telling Jewish tales-Chasidic, folkloric and personal-for adults and children at schools, synagogues, museums and festivals. She believes that listening to stories nurtures our shared humanity. She offers workshops and coaching. www.susanstone-storyteller.com

Lucia Thomas: Musician-a violinist/multi-instrumentalist and arts organizer. She has traveled all over the U.S., Europe and Mexico playing professionally with various ensembles. She is artistic director of the Chicago Folklore Ensemble, which celebrates immigrant communities in the U.S. by performing dynamic arrangements and stories learned from immigrants. Their recent book and CD have been featured throughout the Chicago area.

Please RSVP to Gloria Kaiz at gloria@kaizs.com or at 847-945-3741 by Friday, March 1, 2019.

"COME LET US HAVE SOME TEA AND TALK OF HAPPY THINGS!"

Chaim Potok

This Mother's Day, honor the special women in your life by telling them how much they mean to you. For a $10 donation, you can have a "virtual tea party" with a wonderful mother, grandmother, aunt, sister, teacher, daughter, daughter-in-law or friend. We will send her/him a beautiful letter, expressing your love, to let her/him know just how much she/he is valued and appreciated.

A letter, containing a gift of tea, will arrive before Mother's Day to the woman you have listed below. You may duplicate this form for more orders or list the information below for additional women on the back of this sheet!

Please return the bottom portion of this flyer with your check made out to BJBE SISTERHOOD, C/O Dolly DeCaro, 1478 Pennsylvania, Des Plaines, IL 60018, dolnu18@wideopenwest.com with your information and send a check by May 1, 2019.
